The North East Corner: Masonic Fact or Fiction?

In continuation of the series of public lectures, we have the honor to host W. Bro Dr Mike Kearsley was the Provincial Grand Orator for Middlesex. He was initiated into freemasonry in the Hawera Lodge N° 34 in Hawera, Taranaki, New Zealand and was passed and raised in Mairehau Lodge N° 391 in Christchurch, New Zealand. Later he joined the David Bonner Lodge N° 9678, the Musicians Lodge of the province of Middlesex, under the English constitution becoming its Master in 2010 and Secretary. He is a member of the Temple of Athene Research Lodge N° 9541, becoming Master in 2013, the Feltham Lodge N° 7307, becoming Master in 2012, Quatuor Coronati Lodge N° 2076 and London Stone RA Chapter N° 2541, becoming MEZ in 2012.

He has always had an interest in Masonic research and was a member of the correspondence circle of Masters and Past Masters Research Lodge, Christchurch, New Zealand. He has, therefore, produced many papers and presentations for Masonic audiences. The province of Middlesex is part of the national oration scheme and continues to provide over 100 presentations to lodges each year. In 2011 he was awarded the Norman Spencer prize, by Quatuor Coronati Lodge, for a paper on the formation of the Grand Lodge of New Zealand.
